

412 Sew for Others

Intermediate Level

This project is for members with some sewing experience, or 11-13 years of age.

Members taking more than one clothing project in the same year need to meet specific guidelines available from the FCS Educator.

This project may be taken up to five (5) times. However, the category of "Other" selected may not be repeated. Each time the project is repeated, a different category of "Other" must be selected.

1. Construct at least one complete garment (excluding accessories) for another person OR adapt three different garments for a disabled or handicapped person.
2. Complete the Project Guidelines outlined on Page 3 of project book (#6 is the clothing construction requirement). Complete at least one "Learning Experience" on page 4, and at least one "Leadership/Citizenship Activity" on page 5.
3. Bring to Interview Judging:
 - a. Completed project book.
 - b. Completed Style Review narrative cards.
 - c. Completed outfit or 3 adapted garments for a disabled or handicapped person. (Have person for whom garment was constructed model outfit when possible {most desired} or bring pictures of person in garment.) Judge will consider garment-using criteria on page 14 & 15 of project book.
 - d. Pattern used for garment (where appropriate or needed) and fact sheet for category selected.
 - e. Bring a sample of understitching to Interview Judging or show an example of it on the garment you made.
4. Be prepared to discuss:
 - a. Information presented in project book.
 - b. Knowledge of person for who garment was constructed.
 - c. Construction of garment.
 - d. Styles, design features, and fabrics recommended for special activities, or personal needs.
 - e. Comparison of advantages and disadvantages of sewing a garment versus buying a garment.
 - f. The Learning Experience and Leadership/Citizenship activities completed.

Note: 4-H'er needs to bring project on a hanger and will be given the time to put item(s) on for judging.

Modeling is optional but required in order to receive project premium.
