

419 Terrific Tops

Beginner Level

This project is for members with little or no sewing experience, or 8-10 years of age.

Members taking more than one clothing project in the same year need to meet specific guidelines available from the FCS Educator.

1. Make a top from a pattern. Buy rest of the outfit or select it from clothes you already have.
2. Follow Guidelines Page 4-5 of the project book. This includes all 8 activities, learning experiences and leadership/citizenship activities.
3. Bring to Interview Judging:
 - a. Completed project book.
 - b. Completed Style Review narrative card
 - c. Complete outfit worn for the total look. Judges will consider garment using criteria listed on page 27 of the project book.
 - d. Pattern used for garment.
 - e. Bring a sample of understitching to Interview Judging or show an example of it on the garment you made.
4. Be prepared to discuss:
 - a. Information presented in project book.
 - b. Why you selected pattern and fabric.
 - c. Construction of garment.
 - d. Care of garment.
 - e. The two Learning Experience and two Leadership/Citizenship activities completed.

Note: 4-H'er needs to bring project on a hanger and will be given the time to put item(s) on for judging.

Modeling is optional but required in order to receive project premium.
